Liberty Place Charleston by Hilton Club

475 E. Bay Street, Charleston, SC 29403

Celebrate the best of classic and contemporary Charleston from Liberty Place Charleston by Hilton Club, our first property in this low country city replete with historic landmarks, antebellum architecture, upscale restaurants and retailers, waterfront parks and world-class festivals. Providing a balance of luxury and leisure, Liberty Place features well-appointed studios and suites accompanied by superb on-site amenities including a lobby bar, owners' lounge, fitness center and grab-and-go market. History permeates every corner of this timeless city, including the location of Liberty Place, which sits near the approximate location of the iconic Liberty Tree where the Declaration of Independence was first read to Charleston's citizens. Positioned within walking distance of the South Carolina Aquarium, The Battery and abundant dining, shopping and entertainment, Liberty Place is a picture-perfect base from which to explore the southern belle of South Carolina.
